Chevron Focus Environment competition 2019
Terms and Conditions

By entering the Chevron Focus Environment competition (the competition) you are agreeing to the following terms and conditions.

1. Instructions on how to enter, prize details and other information contained within the promotional advertisements form part of these terms and conditions. By participating in this competition entrants agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

2. The Promoter is West Australian Newspapers Limited of 50 Hasler Road, Osborne Park, WA 6017 [ABN 98 008 667 632].

Who Can Enter

3. The competition is open to all primary and secondary students in Western Australian schools.

Competition Period

4. The competition commences on Tuesday May 14, 2019 and concludes at 5pm on Friday, September 27, 2019.

How to Enter

5. To enter the Chevron Focus Environment competition, entrants must upload their artwork at mediaeducation.com.au/competitions, within the promotional period. No alternative methods of entry will be accepted.

6. Entrants must include details such as to reasonably identify themselves (including name, school, email address, phone number) so that they may be contacted if they are chosen as a winner.

7. Each entry must include both a photograph accompanied by a title and a caption of up to 25 words addressing the subject category. This caption must be written by the photographer.

8. To be valid, entries must be:
   - the student’s own original work.
   - submitted with all required elements at the time of entry.

9. No joint entries will be accepted.

10. Entrants MUST inform their parents or guardians of their intention to enter the competition and have their permission BEFORE entering.

Entry Categories

11. Entries will be accepted from the following age categories:
   - Years K-2
   - Years 3-6
   - Years 7-10
   - Years 11-12

12. Entries must be submitted in the following subject categories to be valid:
   - Focus on: WA’s native species.
   - Focus on: WA’s habitats and ecosystems.
   - Focus on: Sustainability in WA.

13. Judges are unable to accept:
   - Photos from outside Western Australia
   - Photos featuring plants or animals that are not native to Western Australia.
     - Some exceptions to this may be considered, particularly where a strong conservation or WA biodiversity message is made.
   - Captions that are famous quotes or poems
   - More than two entries per category per person

14. Each student may enter a maximum of two photos in each of the three subject categories. Students who submit more than the maximum allowed photos will be automatically disqualified from the competition.
Image submissions
15. Image file names must be in the following format:
   - SCHOOL NAME-YEAR LEVEL-STUDENT NAME-UNIQUE NUMBER
   - Eg. BunburyPS-Yr5-RobertSmith-1.jpg
16. Photographs may be colour, sepia or black and white.
17. Digital photographs must be a minimum resolution of 300dpi.
18. Basic digital manipulation to achieve realistic colour balance and sharpness is permitted by students, but photographs deemed to have been highly digitally enhanced will be disqualified. Media Education has the right to request raw image files to be submitted for review if the authenticity of the image is questioned by judges.
19. Photo submissions must have permission from all people appearing in the photo before a photo can be submitted.
20. Students must submit their own photographic images to avoid potential issues pertaining to copyright.
21. The West Australian and the Competition sponsors accept no responsibility for publication of images where copyright is not held by the entrant.
22. All photographs entered in the Competition become the property of The West Australian and Chevron Australia. By submitting a photograph, each student grants The West Australian and Chevron Australia and its related bodies corporate a royalty free, perpetual, non-exclusive licence to use and reproduce the photograph for any purpose.

25. Students might also have their winning photo and caption published in a special edition of The West Australian’s ED! Magazine in November. Unfortunately, not all winning entries can be published due to space limitations.
26. In the event of the winning student being home-schooled, the school prize will not be awarded.

Judging
27. The competition judging will take place between Monday October 7, 2019 and Friday October 19, 2019.
28. The judging panel will consist of members from The West Australian and Chevron Australia and invited guests.
29. Winners will be chosen based on the quality of the image and the caption. Judges will be looking for:
   - Captions that are spelled accurately and are grammatically correct
   - Captions that address the category criteria
   - Captions that are original
   - Photos that complement the caption
   - Photos that are sharp and have contrast
   - Photos that convey action, emotion, drama or humour
   - Photos that have impact and catch the viewer’s eye
30. Judging will be conducted based on the student work only. The student’s name, age or school will not be a factor in the selection of winners.
31. The West Australian reserves the right to change a student’s entry to a more appropriate subject category for judging, and to edit captions that are over 25 words or that have grammatical or spelling errors.
32. As this is a competition based on skill and creativity, this does not preclude immediate family members of The West Australian or competition partner organisations from being able to enter the competition.

33. The winners and/or their schools will be notified within five business days of the completion of judging. In the instance that the winner cannot be contacted on the phone number or email address provided within one week of the draw taking place, a new winner will be selected. This will be repeated until all winners have been notified.

34. The judges retain the right not to make an award in a given category.

Privacy

35. It is a condition of entry that all prize winners agree to have their winning entry, name, photo, school and suburb published for publicity purposes if required.

36. By participating in this competition, participants signify their acceptance of all conditions and the requirement to participate in promotional activity if required.

37. Information about the entrants will not be stored or used for any other reason than for contacting the winning students and per clause 46. All personal data will be treated in accordance with the Australian Privacy Act.

38. If an Entrant or their Legal Guardian does not want their details to be used for the purposes stated in clause 35. they must write to The West Australian by email to info@mediaeducation.com.au or post to Media Education, GPO Box D162 Perth WA 6840 and West Australian Newspapers Limited will ensure that the details are not used for that purpose.

General

40. To access personal information kept by Seven West Media please refer to the Privacy Policy.

41. The Promoter’s decision on all matters related to this competition is final and cannot be contested. No correspondence will be entered into. The Promoters reserve the right to limit entry or amend rules if considered necessary without notice.

42. The Promoter is not responsible for any data or other information related to this program that may be lost, damaged as a result of any computer software or hardware malfunction. Any issues occurring as a result of computer problems will be rectified as quickly as possible.

43. All entrants release from, and indemnify the Promoter against all liability, cost, loss or expense arising out of acceptance of any prize(s) or participation in the competition including (but not limited to) loss of income, personal injury and damage to property and whether direct or consequential, foreseeable, due to some negligent act or omission or otherwise.

44. The Promoter reserves the right to disqualify any individual who the promoter believes has breached any of these terms and conditions, or engaged in any unlawful or other improper misconduct. The Promoter has legal rights to recover damages or other compensation from such an offender.

45. The Promoter may, subject to State Regulations, terminate this competition at any time at its absolute discretion without liability to any contestant or other person.

46. On completion of the prize draw, all entries will be stored for a 12 month period at The West Australian. This is a mandatory requirement of the Gaming and Wagering Commission Act 1987.
