| Perth hero named Australian of the Year |  The humble Perth diver and his mate who helped rescue 12 Thai boys and their soccer coach trapped in a flooded mountain cave have been named joint Australians of the Year. Craig Challen, a retired Perth vet, and his good friend Richard Harris, an Adelaide doctor, accepted the award last night from Prime Minister Scott Morrison in Canberra. The cave-diving experts, who have avoided the media spotlight since the rescue, were described as the nation's "finest citizens". SUNDAYCANADA HILL RESPONSE 145 |
