

Tuesday March 3, 2020

Read the feature topic on travel writing in today's ED! Magazine and complete some of the activities below.

- According to Stephen Scourfield what does good travel writing rely on?
- Discuss the meaning of the phrase "sell it, don't tell it".
- Who can enter the Young Travel Writers 2020 competition?

- Successful travel writers read a lot. In groups, discuss your favourite books, authors, and genres. Do you have similar or different tastes?
- Successful travel writers write a lot. Create a list of all the types of writing you do in a typical week. Highlight the types of writing you enjoy doing.
- Do you think it is important for travel writers to be accurate? What might be the consequences if they weren't?

- Find some popular travel blogs. Choose two that you like and compare the differences and similarities.

- Rank the photos in order from most to least appealing to you. What is it that you like about your top three?
- If you could travel anywhere to write an article about it, where would you choose and why?

- Create a draft for an entry into the Young Travel Writer 2020 competition. Choose a place you have been to and brainstorm some elements you could write about it.

- Look through today's copy of The West Australian and cut out any travel adverts you find. Which are most appealing to you?

Join The West's Media Education team in our aim to create a media-savvy generation.

Online Media Education activities are designed to enable students to become critical consumers of news. Through completing the activities, students will develop the skills to consider, question, inquire and challenge reported news stories. Media Education encourages students to be informed citizens of global issues considering multiple perspectives before generating their own ideas and opinions.

Tuesday March 3, 2020

Read the stories in ED! Magazine's NEWS FLASH column and complete some of the activities below.

Polly footy knocks harm

- What disorder was Graham farmer diagnosed with?
- What causes this disorder?

- List the symptoms of CTE and for each one, give a specific example of how this symptom could impact someone's life.

- Find out more about concussion. Investigate the symptoms and how it is treated.

- Look online or through today's copy of The West Australian to find out if there are any stories about sports injuries.

Call me Harry

- What does the acronym HRH stand for?

- What is Prince Harry's full name?

- List the benefits and disadvantages of having a royal title.

RSLWA ban reversed

- What policy did Scott Morrison condemn?

- What does 'contentious' mean? Explain why the RSLWA ban was contentious.

- Search through The West Australian and identify at least one contentious issue that is in the news today.